- Entry sheet

VETERINARY CONDITIONS:

All animals involved must be clinically healthy. Dogs must be fitted with a small animal passport or a vaccination certificate containing a record that the dog is immune to rabies in accordance with Section 4(1)(f) of the Veterinary Act. Dogs coming from EU Member States and third countries must be accompanied by a valid small animal passport and comply with the conditions laid down in Regulation 998/2003 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 May 2003. These regulations apply both to dogs exhibited and to dogs of visitors or participants in competitions and accompanying events.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The show is organized in accordance with the provisions of the current version of the CMKU Show Regulation. The show is open to all males and females of the bearded collie breed registered in the studbook of the FCI member state or in the studbook of the country whose Pedigree is recognized by the FCI. All participants are obliged to comply with the Rules of Animal Protection in Public Performance and the Rules of Animal Protection and Dog Breeding.

The following individuals are excluded from participation at shows

- Dogs that are not written in the catalogue. An exception applies to the dogs that demonstrably are not written in the catalogue due to the fault of the organizer, and dogs whose assessment constitutes a document for their record into the Auxiliary Register.
- Dogs that are sick, suspected of having a disease, after an injury, females in the second half of pregnancy or nursing females.
- Dogs owned by persons whose right to exhibit was withdrawn.
- Dangerous dogs – biting and aggressive toward people and dogs.
- Dogs with cropped ears.

It is forbidden to alter the coat, skin or muzzle of a dog with anything that changes its texture, colour or shape. It is forbidden to groom a dog on the show grounds with any substances or devices. Only clipping, trimming, combing and brushing are permitted. It is also forbidden to tie the dog on the trimming table for longer than necessary for grooming. Loud cheering of dogs from behind the ring (double-handling) is prohibited. It is also forbidden to attract the attention of dogs from outside the ring in any other way (e.g. using whistles, toys, food, calling to the dog, etc.). Violation of this prohibition may result in the dog being excluded from judging.

Exhibitors are responsible for the welfare of the dogs. It is forbidden to expose a dog to a situation that could endanger its health or welfare, such as leaving it in a vehicle in extreme heat or cold, or treating it in an abusive manner. Violation of this regulation will result in exclusion from that and subsequent shows. The promoter and show committee are not responsible for any illnesses of the dogs, death or loss of the dog and are not responsible for any damage caused by the dog during the show. The exhibitor is liable for damages caused by the dog. Owners must secure their animals for the duration of the show to prevent mutual attacks or possible injury to persons. The exhibitor acknowledges that he/she is obliged to maintain order in the show area. Bringing puppies for the purpose of selling them at the show is prohibited.

Exhibitors are obliged to comply with the provisions of the FCI and CMKU Show Regulations, these Regulations and the instructions of the Show Committee, which they undertake to do by submitting their application. In case the show is not held for objective reasons, the fees will be used to cover the costs of the show. An exhibitor who does not attend the show for any reason is not entitled to a refund of the show fee. The organiser has the right not to accept any exhibitor's entry, and has the right to reject and return entries and deposits received after the entry close. The organiser accepts no responsibility for undelivered entries. Changes of judges are subject to change.
